

Enrico Tonucci born in Pesaro in 1946 he graduated at the art college in Porta Romana in Florence and since 1970 works as designer and art director with international architects and enterprises. In 1976 he establishes Triangolo S.r.l., a design experimental laboratory where he designs and produces high quality northern like furniture and complements maintaining a Mediterranean atmosphere which will become, in the years, a real enterprise. In 1992 he bought-out Arte&Cuoio where he became the art director; both companies will gain great success. In 2003 he started as Art Director at Curvet Environments SpA. Group that gathers up together important brands such as Simon, Triangolo, Arte&cuoio, R.S.V.P., Sica, Zeritalia.

In 2006, he devotes himself to research and design and gave birth to Manifestodesign, as a Tonuccidesign's studio brand, with a collection of unique products, all made in Italy and with first-quality natural materials. In his career he has received a variety of prestigious prizes and recognitions and also covered public and Institutional assignments. Lives and works in Pesaro.
