

Viola Tonucci Born in Pesaro 10/02/1980.

Graduated at the “Libro di Urbino” High School and attains a specialized degree at the European institute of Design in Milan in the jewel section to which she accesses through a design contest. Takes part at the TAM (metal artistic treatment )sculpture and jewel course presided by Arnaldo Pomodoro and directed by Eliseo Mattiacci. Apprenticeship at the architecture and furnishings Branco Studio in Milan. She then collaborates as designer for some jewel companies in Milan among which Anaconda. From 2003 she designs furnishings becoming partner at the Tonuccidesign Studio in Pesaro. She designs for some Italian and Foreign Companies and collaborates with well known designers and leading figures. Organizes debates, workshop and inherent shows in the territory. Takes part at group shows in the jewel and design field. Receives some recognitions ,Design Prizes.